"Making a Difference"

NORMAN OLIVER
CEO AND PRESIDENT
NOR ENTERPRISES INC.

Norman Oliver brings over 26 years of experience working with community and government agencies and schools. In 1980, he founded Stormin's Classic Basketball Summer League that grew from 54 participants to over 2000.

"I have always recognized the importance of schools, parents and communities working together to support youth in our homes and neighborhoods. Together we can make a difference in the lives of the young people that we serve."

-Norman Oliver

NOR Enterprises Inc. is an education and skill development organization specializing in student and school support services with a special focus on developing "innovative programs" for 'hard to reach' youth and teen populations.

Based in New Castle County, Delaware, NOR Enterprises Inc. employs full and part-time professional staff and consultants who bring over 75 years of education and community outreach experience to serve students and families from diverse backgrounds.

NOR services include SES (Supplemental Educational Services), counseling, mentoring, tutoring, study skills seminars, focus groups, teen leadership development, anger management strategies, test preparation strategies and more.
